

WRITING

Become a Freelance Writer

WRIT-8018A

The “tricks of the trade” are at your fingertips. Join published author Sylvia McClain and discover how you, too, can to turn your dream of writing into a reality. (1 session)

69442 S 10/10 10 AM-2 PM $55 SOU C318 S. McClain

Manuscript Development

WRIT-8022

These classes will provide guidance on manuscript construction—beginning, middle and end. Title creation, outline construction, chapter process, character development, and plot development will be discussed. (1 session)

69443 T 9/22 6-9 PM $39 CTR H220 C. Scott-Jones

Screenwriting I - The Tools

WRIT-8007A

Designed for the inexperienced enthusiast to become familiar with screenplay format, this class prepares a writer through exercises, screenplay study, and film analysis to begin their first, full-length screenplay. Text required – see page 51. (6 sessions)

69552 TH 9/10-10/15 6:30-9 PM $139 SOU C325 T. Marshall

Screenwriting II - The Construction

WRIT-8008B

Experienced writers will focus on intense writing to produce a complete first draft of a full-length screenplay by the end of class. Format, structure, dialogue, etc, will also be discussed. Text required – see page 51. (8 sessions)

69555 TH 10/22-12/17 6:30-9 PM $139 SOU C325 T. Marshall

No class on: 11/26

Self Publishing Workshop

WRIT-8017A

Should you self-publish? Come learn the difference between vanity press, subsidy publishing, print-on-demand, e-book, traditional, and self-publishing. (1 session)

69444 S 9/26 10 AM-2 PM $55 SOU C318 S. McClain

Write, Publish & Market Books That Sell

WRIT-8000A

Discover the mechanics of finishing manuscripts along with the ins and outs of copyrighting, bar codes, pricing, distribution, and Library of Congress number. Review typesetting, book cover design and ways and means of publishing books to sell in major market bookstores. Learn innovative techniques for marketing author and self-published work for financial gain. (1 session)

69445 T 9/15 6-9 PM $39 CTR H208 C. Scott-Jones