

Joe Jenio, managing partner, of Alternative Dispute Resolution Consortium (ADRC) has over 30 years of international experience as a mediator, arbitrator, trainer & conflict specialist. A Michigan State Court Administrative Office (SCAO) mediator and approved General Civil MCR 2.411 (business) & Domestic Relations MCR 3.216 (divorce & family) trainer. Affiliate member of the State Bar of Michigan Alternative Dispute Resolution Section, Michigan Council for Family & Divorce Mediation & Arbitrator for The National Center for Dispute Settlement automotive and construction panels.

Laura Stopczynski, senior partner at ADRC is a conflict resolution specialist, mediator, facilitator, trainer and executive coach. A Michigan State Court Administrative Office (SCAO) mediator and approved General Civil MCR 2.411 (business) & Domestic Relations MCR 3.216 (divorce & family) trainer. Affiliate member of the State Bar of Michigan Alternative Dispute Resolution Section, & the Michigan Council for Family & Divorce Mediation. Co-founder of the Center for Thinking & Collaboration, merging facilitation with the electronic collaboration process.

James H. Stephenson, II J.D., general practice law with concentration in Family & Collaborative Law. A Michigan State Court Administrative Office (SCAO) mediator and approved Domestic Relations MCR3.216 (divorce & family) trainer. Adjunct professor in Employment Law, Healthcare Law, Aspects of Family Law, and Masters level negotiations. State Bar of Michigan, Genesee County Bar Association, ADR Committee, & Family Law Committee member.

For information on Mediation, Arbitration & Consulting, or to learn more about our training to be a qualified Civil or Domestic Mediator through our State Court Administrative Office approved training programs. Contact 810-750-9400