

Scholarship for Lifelong Learning

The Scholarship for Lifelong Learning was established by Dr. Donald J. Amboyer to foster lifelong learning by providing financial assistance to students enrolled in Continuing Education courses at Macomb Community College. Financial need and enrollment in C4K courses through the Center for Continuing Education are foremost when considering scholarship applicants. Scholarship awards are for tuition and fees only. Funds for this scholarship are provided by private donors and organizations.

Criteria for Eligibility

- The student must be enrolled or planning to enroll in a C4K course at the Macomb Community College Center for Continuing Education. These programs are described in the current CCE Schedule of Classes.
- The applicant must complete a C4K Scholarship for Lifelong Learning Application, including statements describing educational goals and financial need.
- A letter of recommendation from a school counselor, teacher, coach or other professional must accompany the application.
- Students are eligible to receive this scholarship only once per year.

Disbursement of Funds

- The community will be made aware of the availability of this scholarship through an announcement in the Center for Continuing Education Schedule of Classes, distributed prior to the start of each semester.
- A three-member committee comprised of members of the CCE staff will review all applications and determine award recipients.
- Awards will not exceed one half of the cost of tuition and fees for specific Continuing Education C4K programs.

How to Apply

Complete the Scholarship for Lifelong Learning online application form. Submit the completed form along with the letter of recommendation by email or mail to:

- C4K@macomb.edu
