

Your Account Will Be Disabled!

- Joe handed over his login ID, password, and address because he received an email from his bank that requested him to do so.
- DON'T BE FOOLED! As a rule, organizations that you have accounts with will not ask you to disclose personal information by email.
- Never provide your user name, password, social security number (SSN), driver's license, state ID number, or similar personal information unless you are POSITIVE the requestor or website is legitimate!
- Cyber criminals are experts at connecting the dots using information from many sources.

For more information, visit www.StopThinkConnect.org or www.OnGuardOnLine.gov.

Macomb staff can also contact the Service Desk to verify the legitimacy of a request or suspicious email.