CHAMPIONS OF TECHNOLOGY SPONSORSHIP

December 2–3, 2015

Can you imagine a world without the minds of Gates, Jobs, Edison, Ford, Knight Durant, Chrysler, Bell, Tesla, Madame Curie, the Wright Brothers, or da Vinci?

All these visionaries helped shape the future. By being a Champions of Technology sponsor of the RET Days at Macomb Community College, you can invest in the future of young minds and the leaders of tomorrow. RET Days give students hands-on experience in advanced manufacturing and technology. Help us develop the great minds of tomorrow.

Leaders of Technology, Invention, and Knowledge

As pillars in your industry, you bring structure and support while generating a following through great achievements. As an exhibitor, you can share your latest technologies, as you ignite that spark in students to learn more and consider a career in your area of expertise. Presenters will engage students in hands-on activities as they learn the latest and greatest in STEM-focused career pathways. Benefits of presenting at RET Days 2015:

- Opportunity to share your company's vision and mission
- Opportunity to share your company's successes
- Fulfillment of your company's Community Outreach objectives
- Exciting students in the reality of future career opportunities
- Your company listed in the roster of educational providers
- Announced as an educational provider in opening and closing remarks, as well as acknowledged in all media coverage
