

University Bound Summer Program

The University Bound Summer Program serves community college students planning to transfer to Wayne State University or any other baccalaureate granting institution by providing:

- Greater insight into your desired major
- An opportunity to get acquainted with campus life.
This includes:
  - Advisors and other support available to help you make an informed decision
  - Connecting you with financial aid resources and staff
- The tools to choose a school and complete your educational goals, the key to greater income and employment stability.

Come join us for a great 2-day, all-expenses-paid experience... where Detroit and Wayne State University have exciting cultural and recreational opportunities that will stimulate your learning and social development! As a Carnegie One Research Institution, Wayne State University is one of the 100 most prestigious institutions in the nation.
