Excellent Coaching Staff

- The same outstanding directors and coaches who have worked together for years at the Macomb Metro D Camp will be on hand to teach and demonstrate
- Coach-to-camper ratio: Approximately one coach to every 10 campers
- We teach the game and break it down
- Coaching staff is selected for their ability to communicate and their skill in teaching the game

What are the advantages of sending your son or daughter to the Macomb Metro D Basketball Camp?

- Experienced Coaches: Most of our coaches have worked camps for over 10 years
- Coach-to-Camper Ratio: Approximately one coach to every 10 campers
- Macomb Metro D Camp's Goal: Our goal is to provide an opportunity for every camper to develop to their full potential
- Campers are divided by age

What does the Macomb Metro D Camp offer that other camps do not?

- Our coaches are actively involved with teams throughout the area
- Most of our coaches have high school coaching experience
- Excellent facilities and a low coach-to-camper ratio ensures maximum participation and excellent opportunity for camper improvement
- Catered hot lunch

Who should attend the Macomb Metro D Basketball Camp?

- Players who have a strong desire to develop their skills to their fullest capability
- Players who want the experience of competing against other players from the Metro Detroit area

Divisions

Big Ten Division (Ages 8–11)

With the young player in mind: Basic offensive and defensive skills are introduced and learned through drills and game environment. Emphasis is on having the youth acquire enjoyment of the sport and knowledge of the game.

College Division (Ages 12–13)

Team concepts are introduced. Offensive skills (i.e., ball handling, shooting, passing, screening) and defensive skills (i.e., one-on-one, help-side and ball-side defense, boxing out, rebounding) are taught. Our aim is to help the player reach their full potential.

NBA Division (Ages 14–17)

Fast-paced motion, with highly skilled and competitive station drills. Total-team offensive and defensive play is taught. Techniques learned can immediately increase each player's game effectiveness.

NOTE: The age groups are tentative and determined by enrollment.
