

Champions of Technology Sponsorship

Can you imagine a world without the minds of Gates, Jobs, Edison, Ford, Durant, Chrysler, Bell, Tesla, Madame Curie, The Wright Brothers or Da Vinci? All the visionaries helped shape the future. By being a Champions of Technology sponsor of the RET Days at Macomb Community College you can invest in the future of young minds and future leaders of tomorrow. RET Days give students hands on experience in advanced manufacturing and technology. Help us develop the great minds of tomorrow.

Leaders of Technology, Invention and Knowledge As pillars in your industry, you bring structure and support while generating a following through great achievements. As an exhibitor, you can share your latest technologies, as you ignite that spark in students to learn more and consider a career in your area of expertise. Presenters will engage students in hands-on activities as they learn the latest and greatest in STEM focused career pathways. Benefits of presenting at RET Days 2014:

- Opportunity to share your company's vision and mission
- Fulfillment of your company's Community Outreach objectives
- Your company listed in the roster of educational providers
- Opportunity to share your company's successes
- Exciting students in the reality of future career opportunities
- Announced as an educational provider in opening and closing remarks, as well as acknowledged in all media coverage
