

Federal Student Aid Institutional Reporting & Disclosures

Job Placement Rates for Summer 2022, Fall 2022, & Winter 2023 Graduates:

90% of career-related (occupational) program graduates reported being employed on the Graduate Survey (301/337), within 6 months of completion.

- 89% of associate degree career-related (occupational) graduates reported being employed (257/289)
- 92% of certificate career-related (occupational) graduates reported being employed (44/48)

The following are types of jobs obtained by career-related (occupational) program graduates (2022-2023):

- | | | |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| • Accounting Assistant/Clerk | • Manager | • Project Manager |
| • Administrative/Executive Assistant | • Mechanical Engineering Technician | • Radiologic Technologist |
| • Automotive Technician | • Medical Assistant | • Registered Nurse |
| • Chef/Food Preparer | • Occupational Therapy Assistant | • Respiratory Therapist |
| • Early Childhood Caregiver | • Paralegal | • Surgical Technologist |
| • Engineering Technologist | • Pharmacy Technician | • Teacher/Teacher Assistant |
| • Firefighter/Paramedic | • Physical Therapy Assistant | • Tool & Die Maker |
| • IT Professional | • Plumber/Pipefitter | • Veterinary Technician |
| • Machinist | • Police Officer | • Welder |

Job placement rates are calculated using graduates of career-related (occupational) degrees and certificates who answered the employment status question on the Graduate Survey.

Job placement rate = Number of graduates employed, in the military, or an apprenticeship or service program / Total number of graduates who responded to the employment question and are in the labor market.

Source: 2022-23 Graduate Follow-Up Survey, Office of Institutional Research