

Community Support for Families

Organization	Contact	Service
CARE of Southeast Michigan	P: 586-541-CARE or 586-541-2273 31900 Utica Rd Fraser 48026 http://www.careofsem.com/classes	Offers classes and workshops for families of children of all ages. Some examples include Parenting Young Children/School Age Children/Teenagers- families will learn strategies to help them have better relationships, communicate more effectively, gain more cooperation, lessen power struggles, and learn positive discipline. CARE offers scholarships and a sliding scale fee for all classes. View updated calendars with class dates and descriptions at the website.
The Commonwealth	http://micommonwealth.com	This online directory of current events is updated daily by organizations throughout Macomb, Oakland, St. Clair, or Wayne Counties. You can search by keyword, date, county, or category. Examples include community suppers, festivals, support groups, information sessions, and holiday events.
Great Start Macomb	http://www.greatstartmacomb.org/node/424	This calendar lists multiple events and is updated frequently to reflect current opportunities for families.
Bridges 4 Kids	http://www.bridges4kids.org	Bridges 4 Kids provides a comprehensive system of information and referral for parents seeking help for children from birth and up. Information is provided for child care, community schools, summer camps, health and safety, advocacy, school climate, bullying, and many more.
Metro Parent	http://www.metroparent.com	An online parenting community offering advice and stories on parenting trends and issues, as well as community events.
MISD Early Childhood	http://www.misd.net/EarlyChild	Use this site to find helpful information for parenting children from birth to age eight. Learn about programs like Great Parents Macomb, MI Great Parents, Great Start Macomb, Early Literacy, Guide to Fun for Families, and more.

If you have questions about these services or how to apply, please contact the SOS (Student Options for Success) Program right away: 586-447-8609 or sos@macomb.edu