

F-1 WAIVER OF LIABILITY AND/OR RESPONSIBILITY

Macomb Community College

College employees are not qualified or permitted by law to provide advice with respect to any legal matter including immigration and naturalization procedure. Please consult your attorney.

Macomb Community College is not responsible for the decision made by a United States Consulate in either approving or denying the issuance of an F-1 Student visa.

Macomb Community College is not responsible for the decision made by the United States Customs and Immigration Service in either approving or denying your petition for a change of status from your current visa to an F-1 visa.

Macomb College employees are not allowed, by law, to assist or submit form I-539, Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status, to USCIS. You or your attorney must do this through the ELIS (USCIS Electronic Immigration System) online process.

If you are currently on a B Visitor visa, we strongly suggest you file for an extension of that visa while you are awaiting a decision from USCIS.

Further, Macomb College will not be notified of a decision, you will be contacted directly.

If your request has been denied, there is nothing the College can do for you.

I understand the above information and will abide by the contents.
